

The Harmony Garden Music Center, Inc

Vocal/Instrumental Teacher

If you genuinely have a desire to make a difference in the lives of others, especially children, through music, we want to hear from you.

- We are seeking a part-time instrumental or vocal teacher to provide weekly, half-hour lessons to students ranging from beginners to advanced players.
- Depending on availability and current demand, employee can expect to teach between 2-12 hours per week.
- Students may be as young as five through adulthood.
- Music and/or Education degree preferred but not required if you are the right fit for our Team.
- At least one year's teaching experience is preferred but not required if you are the right fit for our Team.
- We provide a wide and growing library of repertoire and educational activities to draw from.
- We provide constant training and mentoring for optimal teacher performance and growth.
- Our office staff handles all marketing, billing, scheduling, and communication.
- Payments are made via direct deposit every two weeks.

About The Harmony Garden

Founded in 2013, The Harmony Garden is a leading music education center in the southern Dutchess County region, offering enrichment and top-quality education for ages birth through adult. We are honored to be awarded Reader's Choice for Best Music School by Hudson Valley Magazine in 2020.

The Harmony Garden Music Center's mission is to nurture hearts and minds through music. We strive to use music as a path towards personal growth in our students and connection within our greater community. As our students embark on a lifelong path illuminated by a love of music, they are empowered to step into their own uniqueness and passions, and aspire to be the greatest versions of themselves.

Based in Hopewell Jct, NY, we are opening a satellite location in the Wappingers Falls Village in 2021.

Attributes for Success

To be successful in this role:

- You radiate positivity. Your enthusiasm for music and learning is so infectious that your students cannot help but smile the moment they see you.
- You are fully present for each student. You make eye contact, listen to them as well as you wish to be listened to, and leave no possibility for distraction when with them.
- You genuinely love helping others, especially children. You have a genuine desire to make a difference in lives.
- You value relationships and continually seek to curate relationships with students, families, and within the studio Team.
- You recognize that teaching is a journey. You continuously, curiously seek how to improve as an educator.
- You are an out-of-the-box thinker. You bring innovative approaches to your students' learning and to our Team.
- You have a true team spirit. You recognize that each individual is only as strong as the collective they encompass. You thrive on collaboration.
- You are efficient, organized, punctual, and dependable.

Non-Discrimination Policy

It is the policy of The Harmony Garden Music Center to ensure equal employment opportunity without discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, marital status, citizenship, national origin, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by law. The Harmony Garden Music Center prohibits any such discrimination or harassment.

To Apply

If inspiring young musicians and being a part of an influential Team sounds like your dream come true, we welcome you to complete the following application:

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSePfgovWkQOoGB42JN24bNMXyjzeV99haE-a-ol15I7IYKZew/viewform>