

Seeking a Passionate Voice & Piano Teacher

At Cristina Music Studio, we believe the way to ignite passion is through nurturing individual expression and building confidence.

Through crafting a unique experience for each student, we provide a nurturing and supportive environment where students feel comfortable taking risks allowing them to unlock their potential. Our supportive team, exceptional training, and attention to detail make us the destination studio for teachers and students.

We are looking for a reliable and creative educator to teach voice and piano lessons to kids, teens, and adults in Huntington, NY who is passionate about music education and the positive impact it has on others' lives.

In this role, you will:

- Ignite passion in kids, teens and adults by teaching weekly voice and piano lessons
- Prepare students for studio performances including the Student Spotlight Series, Holiday Playlist Recital, and End of Year Recital
- Help your students record selections for their digital portfolio
- Prepare materials for lessons
- Contribute passionately to our monthly team inspiration meetings and annual team retreat
- Communicate regularly with our team in Slack

Attributes for Success:

We are seeking a team member who wholeheartedly believes that music can change lives. To be successful in this role, you must demonstrate the following:

- A true desire to make a real impact. You are excited to work with students of all ages and find no greater pleasure than helping them develop their musical ability and confidence. You understand that learning occurs when people feel safe to take risks, therefore you lead with cognitive empathy and compassion to foster a connection with your students.
- A natural and welcoming approach to forming relationships with both students and parents. You are warm, approachable, and confident when speaking with studio families. They respect your ability to communicate with ease and make them feel part of the studio family.
- An efficient and organized work ethic. You love nothing more than to be well-prepared and organized for your lessons arriving early with all materials in hand. You understand that excellent preparation opens the door for creativity and spontaneity.
- Superb reliability and dependability. You understand the importance of providing consistency for your students by being a reliable, positive presence in their life week after week.
- A passion for bringing out the best in every single student. Each student is unique and deserves to be treated that way. You understand the importance of individual attention and getting to know them personally.
- A love of learning. You know the best teachers are the ones that are forever seeking new knowledge to better connect with their students and achieve results.
- Commitment to the team. Our team is the core of everything that happens at Cristina Music Studio. You are generous, creative, and caring towards your fellow team members which uplift the entire studio.
