

NYSSMA® 2020 VIRTUAL ALL-STATE PROGRAM

NYSSMA®

A State Unit of NAfME, National Association for Music Education

March, 2021

Dear Colleagues,

The 2020 Virtual All-State program was made possible with the help and cooperation of so many key individuals.

- Dr. David Brown, NYSSMA® President for his tremendous support, trust, confidence, and encouragement. With the loss of the Rochester hotels as well as the Eastman Theater, Dr. Brown gave the word to begin the formal planning of a virtual event. Additionally, President Brown, Executive Director Gaines, the NYSSMA® Officers served as confidants and consultants throughout the project, and the NYSSMA® Office staff assisted with all data compilations.

- Ted Scalzo, Higher Ed. Consultant for MakeMusic, Smart Music. Ted is a retired NY State music educator now working part time for Smart Music. Ted offered his services and eagerly worked side-by-side envisioning, planning, and ultimately on-boarding the Chairs, the Clinicians and each of the All-State students to the Smart Music platform. Ted additionally provided tech and artistic support throughout the weeks and months of the project.

- Jennifer Paisley-Schuch, Trade Shows & Partnerships Director for Alfred / MakeMusic. Jennifer was continuously available to us; working for license approvals, providing details and a timeline to her tech lab regarding the upload of materials, and providing subscriptions to All-State Chairs, Clinicians, and to each individual student. Smart Music donated their entire product and services to NYSSMA® including all 850 subscriptions.

- Steve Peterson; professional musician /artist/ engineer. Steve is a trombone player for the San Antonio Symphony. Steve additionally is recognized and sought-after as a professional audio / video / artistic editor. Steve's work in this field is legendary.

- The All-State Clinicians / Ensemble Managers. All of these individuals are NYSSMA® members, music teachers throughout the great state of New York. NYSSMA® recognized early on that available in our membership we have all the necessary talent and experience. From the very inception of the project we committed to enlisting our vast depth of talent. And now as the program is ready for airtime, it is heartwarming to recognize that everyone gets to feel the pride and ownership.

- Lastly – It is now time to give a STANDING OVATION to our 2020 All-State Chairs and Assistant Chairs! From the bottom of my heart - Thank you ! The work of these 10 individuals was over and above their job description, and it was perfect! These selfless people spent countless hours working through excel spreadsheets, constructing distribution lists, selecting repertoire, score-study, communicating with teachers and students, breaking down the full ensemble into workable smaller sections, selecting – supporting – and then assisting the Ensemble Clinicians, working with Ted Scalzo and Steve Peterson, and coordinating all matters with the 2nd Vice President and ultimately the NYSSMA® Business Office. Make no mistake - that as the weeks and months passed the communication with students became much more difficult. The Chairs pressed on with emails, text messages, and phone calls to students and teachers. Their work on this project was all consuming. Their love for these students and their commitment to provide for them an All-State experience during this pandemic year was unwavering. Please, please, thank these folks. If you would be so kind as to send a personal email – they are so deserving. Their work, their love, and their energy for these students is truly inspiring.

Finally..... Over the course of countless ZOOM meetings and with attendance from regions throughout our state, we had the pleasure of meeting and working with some wonderful young musicians! All-State musicians. They came together; made friends (albeit distantly), and worked hard to learn their music and learn the technology necessary to safely perform this year. They asked questions, worked with the SmartMusic materials, reached out to their Ensemble Clinicians, the Chairs, Ted Scalzo, practiced their work, re-recorded their work, and ultimately delivered their performance. Their performance marks a very special 2020 All-State accomplishment, and I'm proud of every single one of them!

Please join us at the 2020 All-State Concert to be aired on Sunday, April 11, beginning at 4 p.m., via link from the NYSSMA® website.

Yours truly,

Edmund A. Chiarello, Second Vice President
